

How to Turn an Interview Into a Job \(A Fireside Book\).

Or

Save time...get expert help!...have the professionals at ResumeEdge, prepare the perfect resume for you. (Just click on the icon, below, to get more information.):

...Or get their latest Resume Builder software, which will help you to construct your own resume, for just USD $29.99!

9a) Do a short course in something that will make you more marketable.

[Please remember that if you want a career with longevity (one that will be in demand in the next 10-15 years and where the paycheck will enable you to live comfortably) you may have to seriously consider doing a certificate/diploma programme or a degree.]...

9b) This means that you need to...Go back to School.

10) Prepare a weekly and a monthly budget and stick to them. Make it fun for your children to stick to them too...

11) If you rent, consider moving to cheaper home/apartment.

12) However, if you choose to remain at your present rented location, let your landlord know of the change in your financial situation. Bargain with him/her to see if your rent for the next two (2) months can be reduced by a certain percentage and then be added back on to the rent for two (2) months after you're back on your feet.

13) If you have a mortgage - immediately let your Building Society/bank/ lending agency know that you have been made redundant. Refinance your home or find other ways to reduce interest payments on your mortgage, until you find a new job.